KING'S MULTIGENERATIONAL COMMUNITY

Kings School shares a campus with CRISTA Senior Living and fosters a vibrant multigenerational community. This innovative living concept encourages meaningful and regular interactions between older and younger generations, allowing them to teach and learn from each other.

OFF-CAMPUS INFORMATION

Shoreline is located 10 miles north of downtown Seattle, with easy access to famous landmarks like the Space Needle and Pike Place Market, the heart of the tech industry, and a wide array of diverse restaurants and activities. Shoreline is also four miles from the neighboring city of Edmonds.

Edmonds is a waterfront beach town culturally rich with art, restaurants, community spaces, and a ferry boat that takes you across Puget Sound. King's International Students will have an array of opportunities to explore and experience the beauty, culture, and history of the Pacific Northwest.

SPIRITUAL LIFE AT KING'S SCHOOLS

King's Schools is committed to inspiring and transforming lives in a spiritually vital, caring school community to serve God for His glory. Our students are taught by a faculty of mature Christ-followers whose greatest aim is that students know and receive the love of God and live their lives for Him.

Christian formation is integrated into the curriculum and is part of everyday life at King's Schools. Through weekly chapel, Bible classes, community service, serve and learn trips, and many more activities, we expose our students to the goodness and relevancy of God.
